Phil Lombardi, Clerk
U.S. DISTRICT COURT

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

IN RE:

STANDING ORDER PERMITTING
RELEASE OF GRAND JURY MATERIAL
TO THE U.S. PROBATION OFFICE

MISC. ORDER NO. M-128

ORDER

It is the order of the Court that, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 6(e)(3)(C), the attorney for the Government may in any case upon the request of the United States Probation Office for the Northern District of Oklahoma release to the probation office any exhibit, item produced pursuant to grand jury subpoena, recording, and transcript prepared on matters appearing before the grand jury concerning a criminal defendant for whom a finding of guilt is entered and upon whom the Court has ordered the probation office to complete and submit to the Court a presentence investigation report.

Said information is for the exclusive purpose of completing an accurate presentence report and assisting the Court in imposing sentence. The probation office shall not utilize grand jury material for any purpose other than for the preparation of the presentence report or to assist the Court in imposing sentence. The probation office shall not disclose grand jury material except to defense counsel upon objection to the presentence report wherein grand jury material is an element of the guideline application and the subject of said objection, and as provided by Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.

It is so ordered this 26th day of April 1996.

Thomas R. Brett, Chief
United States District Judge
